BASKET BALL TOMORROW NIGHT

Good Game Promised With William and Mary College.The William and Mary College basket ball team will come to Hampton tomorrow evening for a game with the "Independents." The contest will take place in Armory Hall and a hotly contested battle is anticipated.

Weds an Artilleryman.

Mr. Theo. Tyndal, an artilleryman at Fort Monroe, and Miss Estella Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Bryant, were granted a license to marry by Clerk of the Court Harry H. Holt yesterday. The ceremony took place last night.

Mr. Bentley is Ill.

Mr. John T. Bentley, who for many years has been conducting a jewelry business in Hampton, is quite sick in the home of Mr. Charles Bentley, in "College Place." Owing to the illness of Mr. Bentley his store has been closed.

Negro Sent to the Grand Jury.

Justice S. O. Houchens yesterday sent John Saunders, colored, to the grand jury to answer the charge of housebreaking.

Dr. Jones in Town.

Rev. J. William Jones, D. D., of Richmond, and Rev. Carter H. Jones, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., who spent Friday night and yesterday with Rev.
E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., in Carey street, returned to Richmond last evening.

Mr. Houston Here.

Hon. and Mrs. Harry R. Houston came down from Richmond last night to spend Sunday in town. Mr. Houston was soon surrounded by his admirers after making his appearance in the Augusta Hotel lobby.

VISITORS TO BE ENTERTAINED

Rev. Dr. Jones Has Taken Hold of the Matter and Will Make an Address to Those Interested in the Welfare of the Town in the Y. M.
C. A. Building.Rev. E. Pendleton Jones, D. D., who is interested in seeing Hampton secure creditable advertising during the coming Jamestown Exposition, will address a meeting of those interested in such a matter in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.Dr. Jones has many well formulated plans of how the town can be greatly advertised while the exposition is in progress and his plans will no doubt meet with much enthusiasm.One of the ideas of the popular minister is to have the town secure a small launch or tug boat and run it during the exposition so that those desiring to visit Hampton may do so free of cost. As is well known Hampton is the oldest English-speaking town in America and her history is thrilling enough to supply material for several novels.Dr. Jones will speak to the members of the Jamestown Association and Civic Club and all who may desire to assist in what he thinks is the best chance Hampton will ever have of advertising her admirable conditions to the outside world.

"THE BIRTH OF OLD GLORY."

Pretty Musical Entertainment Soon to Be Given.The patriotic musical play "The Birth of Old Glory," under the management of R. J. Traylor for the benefit of the Old Dominion Dragons Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, has been postponed until Tuesday, February 27, the cause being the annual celebration of Washington's Birthday by the J. O. U. A. M., which the Daughters have given way to.There will be represented in songs and dances the different nations of the earth. The beautiful Minuet will be danced by the states.The song of the Cities, represented by Hampton's prettiest young ladies, artistic posing and statue grouping will also be given.

Russian Unthrif.

A condition of general unthrift among the peasants is one of the most striking features of Russian country life. Every stranger passing the frontier between that country and Germany is struck by the marked change in this respect which he encounters up to the very boundary line and which the geographical position does not at all account for. There is no gradual change in the appearance of the face of the country or the people from comparative prosperity to extreme poverty, but a sudden difference in the conditions marked by totally dissimilar methods of cultivation, dwellings and habits of thrift. Everything on the German side indicates careful cultivation and industry, while upon the Russian side the fields show bad tillage and neglect, squallid houses, inferior and uncared for stock and tools and implements lying in the fields exposed to the weather.—Herbert H. D. Peirce in Atlantic.

An Old English Custom.

The nomination of sheriffs according to the present mode dates from 1461.
The "shire reeve" was first appointed by Alfred the Great to assist the aldermen and the bishop in the discharge of their judicial functions in the counties. In Edward III.'s reign it was enacted that they should be "ordained on the morrow of All Souls by the chancellor, treasurer and chief baron of the exchequer." The only instance of a female sheriff is that of Anne, countess of Pembroke, who on the death of her father, the Earl of Cumberland, without male heirs in 1643, succeeded to the office in Westmorland and attended the judges to Appleby.No. 73,628 drew the box of cigars at Hull's Cut Rate Drug Store last night.

The Store That Sells What It Advertises

IN these days of exaggerated advertising and misrepresentation it will be interesting to know that there is at least one store whose announcements are wholly sincere and not intended as "catchpenny" affairs.
Contrary to custom, we wish to sell the articles we advertise. Our great desire being to operate this store on such generally frank principles that the people may turn to it with confidence. We cordially invite your inspection.

Homely Voltaire.

Voltaire was the ugliest man of his age. Emaciated to a skeleton, all the features of his countenance were exaggerated. His nose and chin nearly met from the lack of teeth; his cheeks were sunk and wrinkled, his eyes set so far back in his head and so obscured by shaggy, overhanging brows as to be almost invisible. He usually wore a large wig from the midst of which his attenuated features peeped out with comical effect. For years before he died his weight did not exceed ninety pounds.

Nothing More to Do.

Hubby—I don't see why you shouldn't exert yourself to make me happy. Wifey —Why, of all things! You know you told me when I accepted you that I had made you the happiest man on earth.
What is the use of my trying to improve on that?
